THE DENTIST SAYS:

ERNEST J. TARR, D.D.S.

DENTAL CARE AVAILABLE ON CREDIT

QUESTION— "I need quite a bit of dental work done, but cannot afford to pay right now. Do you have a plan whereby I can get my work done now and pay for it later?"—writes Mrs. R. D. of Harbor City.

ANSWER— Yes, my office is set up to give credit to all who desire it. When you first come into the office, I do a complete dental examination on you. Then I give you an exact estimate of what the work will cost. Once we know the fee, we can arrange for you to buy on easy monthly terms, or weekly if you prefer. No money down is necessary, 6 weeks to make the first payment, and as long as 12 to 18 months to pay.

their work is started immediately and they make their first payment when they receive their additional funds from the State.

If you have any questions concerning dental problems, you want answered in this column, write to:

Eye "Reach" Causes Extra Strain!

Does your occupation demand constant "eye reaching" from the comfortable reading range of your glasses to type-matter or objects 22 to 30 inches from your eyes? Are you over-tired or "headachy" after a day's work? Better change to CONTINUOUS VISION LENSES! They assure clear, strain-free vision at ALL distances without head bobbing or neck craning. You'll feel better and work better! Not expensive; easy terms. Ask for a demonstration, without the slightest obligation.

Special Guest At Foursquare

Rev. Angelo Arbizu, supervisor of Foursquare Missions in Chile, will speak at the Foursquare church, corner of Arlington and Sepulveda, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. and at the morning service on Sunday, November 11.

With headquarters situated in Santiago, Chile, Rev. Arbizu directs several mission stations throughout the Republic, including work in the interior among the Mapuchi Indians as well as churches in the major cities.

This is the largest full gospel school in Chile. It has a Bible school for training native pastors and a radio program on the national hook-up. Mr. Arbizu presented ex-president Peron with his first Bible while he was in office.

Not only will Mr. Arbizu be telling of the work in Chile, but he is also an evangelist. Rev. James P. Lowen, pastor, invites the public to attend these services.

Hallowe'en Party At Nativity School

Prizes were awarded to eight children who attended the Hallowe'en party recently held at the Nativity school.

In the upper grades, the following costume awards were made: Joseph Powers, most original; Cheryl Powers, religious; and Judy Jones, prettiest.

Lower grade children who regaled: Shirley Hansen, funniest; received similar prizes were: Donna Dugan, religious; Kathy Smith, prettiest; Kathleen Band, funniest; and James Campbell, most original.

The next regular meeting of the Nativity Mothers club will be held November 15, at the parish hall, 1447 Engracia. Refreshments will be served by the seventh grade mothers. Mrs. Harry Green is chairman.

GOD HATH spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God.—Psalms 62:11.

EMPLOYEES JOIN AID

DEDICATION RITES SCHEDULED SUNDAY FOR LUTHERAN CHURCH

Dedication services will be held at Ascension Lutheran church, 18002 Prairie in North Torrance, on Sunday, November 11. A new Chapel-Parish Hall, with a capacity of 250, includes Sunday school rooms, a kitchen and the pastor's office. The volunteer-work project was started January 1.

Located across the street from Perry elementary school, the new building is the first unit proposed by the congregation on four acres of property. The entire project is financed through the Mission board of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Volunteer labor accounted for a saving of nearly $17,000 on the building.

Ascension church, organized March 4, 1955, has a total baptized membership of 280. Services have been held in a renovated house on the property since July with an attendance averaging 170 at double services. 180 children are enrolled in the Sunday school.

Three services will be held on November 11. The Dedication Rites will be performed by Rev. Lloyd C. Warneke, pastor, who will also deliver the sermon.

SOROPTIMISTS SCHEDULE YULE PROJECT

At the regular luncheon meeting of the Soroptimists, November 5, it was decided not to have a Christmas party, but to donate the money otherwise used for gift exchange to some worthy cause. Pearl Groot, Dorthie Kirkpatrick, and Frances Dimitri are in charge of the magnificent project.

Plans for several members to attend the luncheon, November 15, at Gardena high school were made. This will be for members of Women's Service clubs. After lunch, a tour of the new high school will be conducted.

Mrs. Ruth Davis, owner of Ruth Davis' Cosmetics, 1415 Marcellina, was approved as a new member.

John A. Richards, Long Beach, will speak at the next meeting, November 12, on "Stock Market and the Economy."

Lutheran Church Collects Clothing Army Family Has Audience With Pope

During this month Park View Lutheran church is cooperating with the appeal to some eleven thousand Lutheran congregations throughout the United States and Canada to contribute clothing to the Lutheran World Relief Thanksgiving Clothing appeal.

This clothing will be distributed among refugees and others in Korea, Formosa, Hong Kong, Jordan, Syria, Yugoslavia, Austria and Germany. Pastor Oelschlager explained that good, clean, usable clothing may be brought to the local Lutheran church any time between now and Thanksgiving.

Master Sergeant and Mrs. James J. Catena, 1322 W. 129th st., recently had an audience with Pope Pius XII in his summer palace in Castelgandolfo, Italy, near Rome.

The Army veteran is a member of the Holy Name society of Naples which sponsored a pilgrimage to Rome for its members and their families. In addition to the papal audience, members visited shrines and other famous landmarks in the "Eternal City."

Sergeant Catena is currently stationed at NATO's headquarters for Allied Forces in Southern Europe. He is a chief clerk in the Secretary for Administration division here, and works with officer and enlisted personnel from France, Greece, Italy, Turkey, the United Kingdom and the United States—the countries represented in the NATO Southern European command.

Mrs. Catena is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Chontes of Route 1, Dillonville, Ohio, and formerly of Martins Ferry, Ohio. Sergeant and Mrs. Catena have one daughter, Beth, 10, and two sons, Jimmy Joe, 6, and Robert, 5.

Rehearsals Set For Messiah

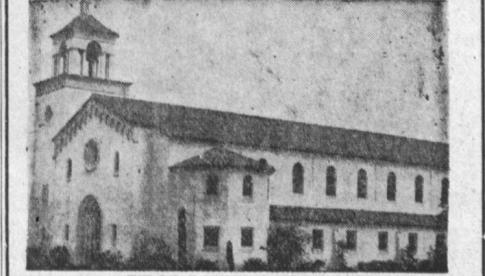

On Sunday, November 11, at 3 p.m., the first Messiah rehearsal will be held at the First Christian church, 2930 Eldorado. Frank Owen will be the director. Elizabeth Moser, Trudy Troy, Wayne Anderson, Don Ogren are the featured soloists. The combined choirs will be accompanied by piano and organ.

Laurence M. Sargent, chairman for the Torrance area, is making final arrangements, with the help of his committee to make the presentation a success. The performance is scheduled for Sunday, December 2, 4 p.m.

All church choir members and other singers who wish to participate in this Christmas celebration, are urged to attend all three Sunday afternoon rehearsals on November 11, 18, and 25, at 3 p.m.

Hospital Post Accepted By Local Man

Gerald L. Revell, president of the Cal-Metals corporation of Torrance, has accepted the Industry Committee chairmanship for the $776,000 Little company of Mary Hospital campaign.

With Revell's acceptance, the fund-drive moved into its first solicitation stage. Before the February 11 campaign deadline more than 1,200 volunteer workers are expected to give their time and effort to make the new 125-bed institution a reality.

The industry goal for the campaign covering some 350 plants in Torrance and the surrounding territory, has been set at $547,000.

Revell's selection was determined by Sam Levy, Torrance civic leader; George W. Post, California Bank, who serves as Campaign treasurer; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. O'Dwyer, director of health and hospitals for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles; and King Williams of the Torrance Herald. George W. Schneider of Hollywood-Riviera.

LDS BAZAAR

The Latter Day Saints Gardena ward, relief society, are having their annual bazaar Friday, November 9, 6 p.m., at 1880 West 220th street, Torrance. There will be booths, games and plenty of food for everyone.
